Problem solved. The problem has always been that Mr. Tchaikovsky wrote way too much music for many ensembles to prepare. Instead of 15 minutes, this version takes only six and a half minutes to perform! And all of the excitement and pageantry is still there! Best known for its climactic volley of cannon fire, ringing chimes and brass fanfare, this piece is perfect for a bicentennial celebration in 2012. You have to hear it to believe it! (Pub)

Rhythmic fervor best describes this exciting new work for intermediate orchestra. With wind parts eliminated for a string-only performance, this selection retains its energy while developing different textures. This piece is contemporary in nature yet offers maximum flexibility for both instructional and performance opportunities. (Pub)

Driving rhythms abound in this original contest work. Performable by string or full orchestra, the piece is contemporary in nature and includes a mysterious section that has the upper strings using natural harmonics. Full of energy and vitality! (JWP)

This dramatic work for symphony orchestra is a perfect opener or closer. From mysterious and dark melodies to driving rhythmic lines and a relentless pulse, the music provides an opportunity to showcase the power of your ensemble, the beauty of the various soloists featured throughout, and the talent of your percussionists who will be extremely busy! Many cues are provided for groups without full instrumentation, making this accessible to many. Riveting! (Pub)

Without a doubt, the most recognized hymn tune ever written is "Amazing Grace." This simple yet beautiful melody crosses all musical boundaries. A simple stating of that melody begins this vibrant new setting, and the harmonic framework builds to a dramatic concluding statement. Playable by strings alone or by adding percussion and any winds up to full orchestra, this work will suit your concert needs year after year. (Pub)

This is a simply beautiful hymn and Elliot Del Borgo's fine arrangement really brings out the message. Starting delicately, the piece builds in texture into a full presentation of the melody. (JWP)

True to the original but edited to fit your needs. Choosing to program the complete An American in Paris may be too cumbersome, but we have the solution! This classic work has earned its place in music history, and this arrangement lives up to its reputation. Both programmatic and musical, it's Gershwin at its best! (Pub)

Don't miss this one! Gershwin's original suite, some 17 minutes in length, is often too cumbersome to program. This version, edited and condensed down to 7 minutes, is your solution! Staying true to the original, it's a wonderful display of Gershwin's rich and evocative orchestral writing. Recommended for mature school orchestras and community orchestras! (JWP)

This work has been carefully edited so that it can be performed by intermediate full orchestras. First violins, cellos and basses have a few shifts into positions, while second violin and viola parts can be played entirely in first position. Woodwind and brass parts are edited with fingerings, slide positions and courtesy accidentals for the benefit of those students without extensive playing experience in sharp keys. And don't forget the anvils!! This is a great opportunity to have a "guest" percussionist (a principal, superintendent, local celebrity, etc.) join the orchestra. (Pub)

In this day, when rock and rap reign supreme, the world takes notice when a beautiful ballad comes along. This gorgeous melody gained exposure and fame as part of the soundtrack to the television mini-series "The Civil War" and it's popularity has continued. In the hands of the talented arranger Bob Cerulli, Ashokan Farewell fits the orchestra genre perfectly, whether string orchestra or full orchestra with the optional winds and percussion parts. This will be a most effective concert work. (Pub)

The PBS series The Civil War was one that captured America's attention. This beautiful lament from that documentary has taken on a life of its own. Bob Cerulli's arrangement opens with a feature for solo violin, continues with strings alone, and includes the option of using piano, winds, and brass for a full orchestra version. A timeless melody that captures the hearts of all who hear it! (JWP)

First performed in Rome in 1816, this overture is among Rossini's most-loved orchestral works. Your students will undoubtedly recognize the infectious main theme from its frequent use in commercials and even Bugs Bunny cartoons! This arrangement highlights the individual colors of the woodwind, brass and string sections, yet remains so close to Rossini's original, your young orchestra will sound as if they're playing the real thing! (Pub)

Leave it to Richard Meyer to bring this beloved favorite down to the easy level while still retaining all the excitement of the original! Everyone will recognize these great themes from the world's most famous opera and your orchestra will be able to handle all the parts. Your orchestra will love sounding this good! (JWP)

A beautiful arrangement by Richard Meyer of "Waltz Number 1," "Waltz Number 2," and the "Coda" from the original, set perfectly for the first full-orchestra experience. Perhaps the most widely popular composer of light classical music ever, Johann Strauss, Jr. wrote over 150 waltzes, bringing the form to perfection as an extended musical composition. (the common English title of ---German for "By the Beautiful Blue Danube"), was composed in 1866 and was premiered in February of 1867. It has been one of the most popular classical pieces ever since. (Pub)

The "Bounty Hunter Theme" from Advent Rising, originally written as a movie, is the first in an epic trilogy of games, presented in a stunning cinematic format to deliver an unprecedented variety of game play experiences. Victor López has taken excerpts from the original soundtrack, which is performed by a 70-piece Hollywood orchestra and the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, and given us an arrangement that musically combines all the elements of a gripping storyline that will thrust the orchestra and audience alike into an incredible intergalactic saga. From beginning to end, one can feel the convulsive attacks of absolute gaming giddiness. Dual weapon handling, plenty of epic action sequences, lush environments, incredible character designs, superhuman powers including energy blasts, levitation and energy shields, and a versatile control scheme all come alive in this great arrangement. Scored for full orchestra, "Advent Rising Suite" will definitely be one of your ensemble's favorites this year. (Pub)

The big discovery in recent years is the power and excitement of orchestral music composed for video games! The national tour of Video Games Live sells out in every town it visits. Now students have the chance to play this dynamic music. Victor Lopez' five-and-a-half-minute tour de force can be the hit of your next concert! (JWP)

Adapted from the first movement of his "Brandenburg Concerto No. 3" for strings, J.S. Bach later added wind parts and created this "Sinfonia" for his "Cantata No. 174." This arrangement by Merle Isaac is an excellent way to showcase your strings in a full orchestra setting. (JWP)

To solve all of your musical concerns at the time of graduation, Jack Bullock has scored this complete package containing a fanfare, processional, "The National Anthem," and a recessional. The arrangement is complete when played only with string orchestra and can be further enhanced by adding any winds and percussion up to and including full orchestra. (Pub)

This great set of selections is a musical "Swiss Army Knife," giving you the right music at the right time. It includes: Fanfare; Pomp and Circumstance; The Star Spangled Banner and the Triumphal March from "Aida." All selections are flexible with optional repeats. Written for either string or full orchestra, this is very playable with minimal rehearsal time. A great value! (JWP)

The sparkling colors of the Romantic period are in full play all the way to the exciting conclusion. The stirring march movement from Liszt's Symphonic Poem No. 6, Mazeppa, will be a welcome challenge for high school orchestras. (JWP)

Sure to delight, the central portion of this original piece brings the unrestrained exuberance of bluegrass fiddling to the orchestra. In a lovely contrast, the piece opens and closes with a slow chorale, bringing to mind sunset and sunrise over the mountains. (Pub)

Your orchestra will love the chance to play these ever-popular tunes from Ponchielli's opera La Gioconda, as arranged by Richard Meyer. Instantly recognizable to any audience, this arrangement retains the sound of the original and gives students a chance to develop the variety of techniques needed to perform two very different styles of dance music. The key has been changed (from E major to G major) and the time signature simplified (from 4/8 to 4/4), but none of the fun is missing! (Pub)

As the title implies, this is a lively, energetic work. Arranged for developing players, the eighth and sixteenth note passages sound more difficult than they are. Particular care was taken to retain as much of the shimmering orchestration as possible. (Pub)

The title leaves no doubt as to the character and energy of this piece! Developing orchestras will sound as symphonic and colorful as possible, while more advanced ensembles can add brilliance by exceeding the indicated tempo marking. (JWP)

This arrangement has been a favorite of students, teachers and audiences since it was published. All sections make important contributions, and all players have something to do. Originally arranged for an elementary school orchestra, this arrangement sounds more difficult than it actually is. (SMP)

"Danse Infernale" from the Firebird Suite is Stravinsky at its best! Challenging but eminently playable, this is truly one of Isaac's great arrangements and a Belwin Classic orchestra piece! (Pub)

Here's is Merle Isaac's classic arrangement of Stravinsky's Danse Infernale from the "Firebird Suite." It will work hand in hand with his adaptation of the Berceuse and Finale. Treat your players and audience to some of the best music from the 20th century! (JWP)

A musical adventure through mysticism and magic. This unique setting offers a wide variety of dynamics, textures, and styles while remaining playable. The momentum is quickly established, and your students are part of the journey. This is a super piece that will capture the imagination of students and listeners alike. (Pub)

It's ghostly! It's creepy! Your orchestra will love it! From the driving opening motives to the quirky gypsy-sounding theme, this is haunted-house music at its best! You can play this with either full or string orchestra, but the percussion section is really vital and should be used in both cases. This is recommended and will thrill and delight your audience! A winner! (JWP)

Four Ellington hits - Don't Get Around Much Anymore, Do Nothin' 'Till You Hear from Me, Sophisticated Lady, and It Don't Mean a Thing (If It Ain't Got That Swing) - are given special treatment in this monster medley. Full instrumentation is required, and the arrangement is moderately advanced, but the result is great music! (Pub)

From composer Steven Bryant comes this simple, chorale-like work that captures the reflective calm of dusk, paradoxically illuminated by the fiery hues of sunset. Dusk is intended as a short, passionate evocation of this moment of dramatic stillness. (Pub)

This fantastic score by John Williams, which has thrilled millions of moviegoers, lives again! From The Empire Strikes Back comes these fantastic themes, presented here in a terrific medley: Star Wars (Main Theme) * May The Force Be With You * Hans Solo and the Princess * Yoda's Theme * The Imperial March (Darth Vader's Theme). Resplendent in this newly released and enhanced big screen spectacular, these marvelous melodies are indeed timeless! (Pub)

Thrill to the glory and power of John Williams' incredible movie score from "The Empire Strikes Back" with this awesome medley arranged by John Whitney. It'll take some work, but the end result will sound as good as the soundtrack itself! Includes May the Force Be With You; Yoda's Theme; Han Solo and the Princess; The Imperial March (Darth Vader's Theme) and Star Wars (Main Theme). Absolutely stunning! (JWP)

Take notice! Seldom, if ever, have we heard a more musically exciting venture for orchestra (playable by string orchestra and with the addition of any winds and percussion up to full orchestra). Composer Larry Clark, in a highly creative period, has developed this stunning new work. Two opposing themes resist one another. A constant motor element fights the lyrical melodic material. Each new angular theme is more forceful than the last. Engines of Resistance is unique and tightly written, with fantastic program potential. (Pub)

You will want to program this thrilling music often! As the title implies, there is dramatic tension between opposing forces in the orchestra: a light ostinato pattern opposes a heavy, aggressive melody; bursts of percussion ring out against quieter moments in the orchestra, and all these conflicting elements come together for an incredible finish! Can be performed as strings and percussion, or as a full orchestra. A contest winner! (JWP)

Unlike the Ormandy arrangement of this chorale prelude, the fantasy section begins after the full statement of the chorale. Scoring allows for strings-alone performance in the highly accessible key of G major. With much of the ornamentation removed, more groups have the opportunity to perform this familiar melody. Leidig has done a typically ingenious job of scoring, maintaining the richness of the piece for either string or full orchestra. Ideal for an inspirational combined festival number. (Pub)

Vernon Leidig has done an ingenious job of scoring this chorale prelude for either string or full orchestra. Much of the ornamentation has been removed or written out, while the beauty of the original has been retained. It's an ideal selection for contest or festival! (JWP)

Tschaikowsky used a Ukrainian folksong as this basis of this shining, exciting finale. Tutti episodes contrast with episodes highlighting various sections of the orchestra. This is an easy arrangement, but Dr. Dackow has maintained the character and energy of the original. (Pub)

Tchaikovsky's "Finale" from the famous "Little Russian Symphony" can be a dramatic showcase for a developing orchestra. (JWP)

This Sibelius masterwork is now intelligently transcribed for today's orchestra. Vital brass entrances have preparation to assure secure attack. Careful doubling, cuing, and more, will allow the work to succeed with large groups as well as smaller ensembles or orchestras with unbalanced instrumentation. Audiences will respond, and your musicians will experience the joy of performing culturally time-tested, great music. (Pub)

There's a cold mystique about this work from Finland's most famous composer, but at its heart is a warmth that overflows with beauty. Well known to many listeners, Finlandia displays a strong sense of nationalistic strength in its mighty brass and soaring strings. Owen Goldsmith's adaptation eliminates a few of the technical difficulties and includes generous cross-cuings. The brass double tonguing is still there, but so is all the power! (JWP)

Ride 'em Cowboy! In 2007 Ennio Morricone was awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award at the Academy Awards. Here's a high-energy medley of western favorites for the intermediate full or string orchestra. Favorite themes included "The Magnificent Seven," "Hang 'Em High," and "The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly." This spirited arrangement will bring the crowd to their feet! (Pub)

This is great fun! Here's a high-energy medley of western favorites, and the audience will recognize them instantly! Play the themes of the most famous (or most notorious) westerns including: The Magnificent Seven; Hang 'em High and The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly. This spirited arrangement will bring the crowd to their feet! (JWP)

This medley will bring the magic of the movie right to your concert stage. Michael Story has expertly crafted this medley for your intermediate or junior high school orchestra. Playable by strings alone or with any combination of winds up to a full orchestra, this film music is a sure-fire hit for your next program. A super choice for the more advanced ensemble with limited rehearsal time as well. (Pub)

Bring the magic of "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone" to life with the spectacular music from the movie! Michael Story has crafted a terrific medley for bands that sits squarely at the easy level. You'll delight in the colorful harmonies and memorable themes, including: Prologue; Hedwig's Theme; The Quidditch Match; Harry's Wondrous World and Leaving Hogwarts. This is symphonic film music at its best! (JWP)

This is the winner of the National School Orchestra Composition Contest. It is a highly rhythmic piece, which involves every player from the measure one to the end. Piano is included which adds a colorful percussive timbre to the overall sound of the orchestra. Mr. Lloyd has dedicated his composition to all the Churchill/Woodland Hills Orchestras of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. (Pub)

With string parts as close to the original as possible, this full orchestra arrangement of two movements from Grieg's Holberg Suite is a gem! It may be performed by string or full orchestra, and, for ultimate flexibility, each movement can be performed alone. Featuring the "Sarabande" and "Gavotte," careful attention has been paid to maintain the original intentions of the composer in this piece. Minimal accommodations were made by arranger Victor López to provide a more educationally-sound experience for the players. (Pub)

"Honor, Laud and Rejoice" is a joyous and festive selection written for full orchestra at the intermediate level. The piece was commissioned in the memory of a student musician who passed away at the beginning of her senior year in high school. Rather than write a somber piece, Jack Bullock has crafted a piece that she and her classmates would have enjoyed performing together. The title describes the admiration, praise and feeling of joy and great delight that those who commissioned this work felt for this young lady. (Pub)

In the early 1700s, London high society delighted in evening pleasure trips on the River Thames. These leisurely trips were often accompanied by a floating orchestra-a whole barge-load of musicians playing "water serenades." Handel composed suites of "water music" for such festive occasions. This vigorous tune is one of his most famous, and your students will instantly take to its catchy syncopations. The excellent antiphonal writing will foster "section" pride in your group, as the melody bounces around from strings to woodwinds to brass. (Pub)

Handel composed at least two, probably three or more suites of "Water Music." This vigorous tune is one of his most famous, and your students will instantly take to its catchy syncopations. The excellent antiphonal writing will foster independence and pride among the sections of your orchestra, as the melody bounces around from strings to woodwinds to brass. A perfect way to open your next concert while teaching a bit of Baroque history! (JWP)

This gentle and beatifically melodic selection is the perfect way for your students to develop a sensitive, legato playing style. Suggesting the cool mountain air of an evening in Spain, this intermezzo opens Act II of Bizet's operatic masterpiece with a lyrical flute solo that is eventually taken up by the entire orchestra. Mature-sounding and faithful to the composer's original, the colorful orchestration is sure to keep all sections interested. The piano accompaniment part can be played by harp (as in the original version) or a keyboard with harp setting. (Pub)

This work, scored for orchestra and narrator, reflects on the Sandy Hook Elementary School tragedy. The piece blends elements of a funeral march and a lament, and near the end of the piece a moving poem is read over the music by a narrator. (Pub)

In his James Bond Medley arrangement, Victor López shows that the 007 agent is alive and well. The medley features five classic hits, the "James Bond Theme," "For Your Eyes Only," "Goldfinger," "Live and Let Die," and "No Body Does it Better." Although this arrangement is written for intermediate full orchestra, it has been scored in such a way that it will also sound as effective with strings only. Careful considerations have been given to tonality and rhythmical issues as related to the strings. Bowings have also been included to facilitate playability. For more additional flexibility, solo parts have been cued throughout. With solid scoring, adequate ranges and classic selections, this James Bond Medley is a sure winner! (Pub)

The James Bond Theme; For Your Eyes Only; Goldfinger; Live and Let Die; Nobody Does It Better: each one a top-ten hit and each from a classic Bond movie! Now, in this well-planned arrangement, you can play just one or two, or the complete medley! It's almost ten minutes of Bond soundtrack magic. Although kept around the medium level, these arrangements sound full and professional. Your students will ask to play these again and again! (JWP)

"Bond...James Bond." Everyone will recognize the theme song of "007"...it's a super choice for lighter programming. Bob Cerulli's cool arrangement really comes alive when you use the optional drum set part. (JWP)

The man with more lives than the proverbial cat, Agent 007 is alive and well in the body of yet another leading man. So strong is the character and so well known are his exploits, that audiences the world over identify with his musical 'themes' in an instant. Your audiences will smile after just four notes, or fewer! (SMP)

Combine this festive movement with the First Philharmonic arrangements of Handel's "Hornpipe" and "Hallelujah Chorus" for a wonderful suite honoring the great Baroque master! In addition to wonderful tutti writing, the string section and wind section are featured on their own in this colorful arrangement, which makes a perfect opener to any concert. All string parts are playable in first position, with optional shifting for first violin and string bass. (Pub)

You will wonder how you ever did without this masterpiece at this level! In addition to wonderful tutti writing, the string section and wind section are featured on their own in this colorful arrangement, which makes a perfect opener to any concert. All string parts are playable in first position, with optional shifting for violin I and string bass. Add the Hornpipe from "Water Music" (Pepper #2478649) and/or The Hallelujah Chorus (Pepper # 2442606) for a wonderful suite honoring the great Baroque master. It will be Handelmania! Highly recommended! (JWP)

Remember the word "fire" when preparing this music. It is powerful, dynamic and exciting music with infectious rhythmic feel, emphasized by the rhythm section and the counterpoint. Written for the Stan Kenton Band as one of the seven movements of Cuban Fire Suite, this piece makes Latin jazz perfect for the orchestra! (Pub)

Recurring themes within contrasting sections, ranging from the majestic to a spirited dance, will delight audiences and players alike. Mixed meters, asymmetrical meters and the playful development of previous motives characterize the development section, leading into a rousing finale. Great contemporary composition! (Pub)

This is a truly excellent addition to any good orchestra library! Completely re-edited by Merle Isaac and in its original length, this exciting work is always a concert favorite!

Opening with its famous horn calls and strong chords, it contains the celebrated theme by which the overture is always remembered, which is often quoted to describe the gallop of the cavalry. (JWP)

Great movie music for your concert orchestra. All of Howard Shore's familiar themes from the award-winning film score are accurately portrayed in this symphonic medley. This spectacular arrangement is well worth the effort. A most exciting interpretation that will have your audience in awe. (Pub)

The epic film "The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring" has been heralded as a milestone in filmmaking and is destined to become a classic. The powerful movie music aptly conveys sweeping vistas and dramatic battle scenes that come to life in the film. This setting for full orchestra will bring the expansive feel of the film score to your stage! (JWP)

MacPherson's Lament is a delightful Scottish air arranged by Bob Phillips and Dean Marshall, the music director of the world famous fiddle group, Barrage. Legend has it that MacPherson went to his death playing this hauntingly beautiful tune on his fiddle. Beginning with the cellos and basses, the melody is passed around throughout the orchestra while accompanied by a variety of figures that build in intensity. (Pub)

Here's a delightful Scottish air arranged by Dean Marshall, the music director of the world famous fiddle group "Barrage," and by Bob Phillips. Legend has it that MacPherson went to his death playing this hauntingly beautiful tune on his fiddle. Once learned, this will become a tune you often hear around the orchestra room. Beginning with the cellos and basses, the melody is passed around throughout the orchestra while continuing with a variety of accompaniment figures that build in intensity. This a nice choice at any occasion! (JWP)

Fiery and exciting, this arrangement retains the scoring and "sound" of Mozart's original while bringing it within the grasp of the very young full orchestra. Very mature sounding, yet so playable. Outstanding! (Pub)

All the excitement of this famous Mozart work is now available to your younger players! Dynamic changes, spiccato bowings and the propelling sounds of a classical overture are all perfect teaching features of this piece. Players and audience members alike will love this one! (JWP)

This familiar piece by Mozart is tastefully arranged for school groups by Merle Isaac, acclaimed master of school adaptations. This is one piece that all school orchestra musicians should experience! (Pub)

Here's Mozart's most famous overture, carefully arranged and edited by Merle Isaac. Staying very true to the original, this one challenges the strings, but often becomes their favorite! An excellent opener or closer. (JPW)

A striking fanfare announces this fantasy for orchestra that conjures up visions of knights and kings, wizards and sorcerers. Outstanding teaching opportunities abound in this driving and dynamic composition. It will be perfect as either a festival or concert selection. Scored for full orchestra, this piece is also completely playable by string orchestra alone, or with any number of added winds or percussion. (JWP)

"Millennium," recorded this year by Alfred for the first time, was first released in 1998. Winner of the 1998 N.S.O.A. composition contest, this contemporary-sounding overture is extremely powerful and full of emotion from beginning to end. After a foreboding introduction, the heroic main theme is introduced by the brass section in unison, accompanied by the entire orchestra in a percussive, marcato style. A lyrical subordinate theme of extreme beauty follows, first stated by unison cellos, then picked up by the entire orchestra. The third and final section is a wild and energetic march, pitting brass against woodwinds and strings, leading into a final, majestic restatement of the main theme. Richard Meyer's colorful and imaginative scoring features every section of the symphony orchestra, resulting in a wonderfully mature-sounding, yet playable, 'tour de force' for the student orchestra. The excitement of Dvorák's most famous orchestral work is now within reach of the young full orchestra. With string parts remaining in first position throughout, this great-sounding arrangement features simplified range and rhythm without sacrificing the intended spirit and sound of the original. The result is a very playable version of this popular movement. (Pub)

This famous "Nocturne," which evokes the magic slumbers of Shakespeare's main characters in the forest, will provide a chance to develop a beautiful, legato playing style. Winds are featured in several spots, and the strings use legato hooked bowings throughout. A great "change of pace" piece that will showcase your orchestra's sensitivity and musicality! (Pub)

Mendelssohn's famous Nocturne is one of the cornerstones of the orchestral repertoire. Scored here for developing orchestra, it features the timeless melody with winds and uses legato hooked bowings in the strings. Recalling the magic slumbers of Shakespeare's main characters in the forest, this lovely transcription will provide a chance to develop a beautiful, legato playing style while displaying your orchestra's sensitivity and musicality! One of the most famous ballets by Tschaikowsky is given special treatment by veteran orchestra arranger Merle Isaac. Two lovely melodies are included in this rewarding collection. Both are complete arrangements, but they can be performed as a suite. (Pub)

For decades, the skilled arranging of the late Merle Isaac made great works playable by developing orchestras. Here he presents the beloved "Nutcracker" ballet in two sets that sound like the originals. Feature a good pianist in Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy. Show off the entire orchestra in Waltz of the Flowers. Perform "as is" or make your own suite with the addition of set 2. (JWP)

Adapted for full orchestra by Merle Isaac, this second set of well-known music from the Tschaikowsky ballet is cheerful, jaunty, and lively with rhythm. Excellent music for holiday concerts. (Pub)

This second set features two of the most well-known holiday favorites of all time: March of the Nutcracker and Trepak. As always, Merle Isaac remained as true to the originals as possible. Playable alone or with set one as a suite (Pepper #2041911). Trepak makes a fantastic finish to your holiday concert! Wonderful music! (JWP)

Composing for young performers was always close to Copland's heart, so he accepted the commission for a large orchestra piece from the High School of Music and Art in New York City. Copland wanted to play a role in introducing good contemporary American music to young players. In a review, Elliott Carter wrote: "Its opening is as lofty and beautiful as any passage that has been written by a contemporary composer. It is Copland in his prophetic vein. . . never before has he expressed it so simply and directly." (Pub)

Shortly after returning from Paris where he had been studying orchestration with Ravel, the 36-year-old Ralph Vaughan Williams was invited by Cambridge University to compose incidental music for their 1909 production of Aristophanes' great satire "The Wasps." He set about to create a score that contained an impressive array of beautifully orchestrated character pieces to accompany the play. (Pub)

Since its premiere in 1874, Die Fledermaus (The Bat) has been one of the most beloved operettas ever written. Among Johann Strauss' most famous overtures, this delightful selection abounds with memorable melodies that your audience will surely recognize, and the shifts in tempo and meter will give your student musicians a chance to develop a wide variety of playing techniques. A great concert opener or closer, and a wonderful contest selection, this arrangement sounds like the original while staying well within reach of younger musicians. Includes a full complement of percussion parts as well as parts for Violin III (Viola, treble clef), Alto Saxophone, and Piano Accompaniment. (Pub)

Originally arranged for a junior high school festival orchestra, this title sounds more difficult than it actually is. Dr. Dackow has simplified the composer's rapid passagework, allowing the original tempi to be maintained. This is a terrific selection for a concert or contest program. (Pub)

An early Verdi opera, "Nabucco" will provide an approachable and satisfying challenge for your full orchestra. Sandra Dackow has done a superb job of transcribing this classic, and it should be a part of every mature orchestra's library. (JWP)

Intended for high school groups, this arrangement can also be performed by a good junior high school group. It requires full brass and percussion sections; the result is very exciting and will make young, developing orchestras sound terrific. (Pub)

Much of Wagner's best-known music is of such a grand scale that it does not translate easily for school orchestras. In this outstanding arrangement of the overture to Wagner's first successful opera, Sandra Dackow has produced a marvelous piece for school orchestras that is faithful to the grand ideas and deep emotions of the original. A strong choice! (JWP)

Long considered to be one of the most dramatic symphonic movements of all time, Respighi's finale is arranged to make it accessible and effective for intermediate-level groups. The tension-building final section of this monumental work has been carefully scored by Stephen Bulla to give your orchestra the opportunity to perform the triumphant "ending of all endings." Experience the high seas with this programmatic work for full orchestra complete with mystery, adventure, sword battles and buried treasure. A multitude of effects add to the drama and intensity, including the unique sound of glissando cello harmonics simulating the sound of seagulls on a desert island. This arrangement includes optional parts for your concert band members as well (not playable by concert band alone) to give you added performance flexibility and possibly combine your two groups. This delightful overture by Sir Arthur Sullivan is a favorite with listeners around the world. "Come, Friends Who Plow the Sea," better known as "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here" makes the work instantly familiar. Sullivan's comic opera overtures are potpourris arranged from the most engaging tunes from the show. This arrangement of Pirates of Penzance expands the composer's original scoring for small pit orchestra into a work with rewarding parts for everyone in a full, symphonic ensemble. Violin parts do not exceed third position and wind parts are carefully edited for upper intermediate players. Players and audiences will have a blast with this tuneful overture! (Pub)

A fabulous reduction of this famous piece that is so versatile! All strings can remain in first position, double stops may be divided, repeats can be optional, and this piece works well with only strings and piano as well. What more could you want? (Pub)

This marvelous, flexible arrangement of Elgar's famous processional march is so versatile, you'll want to use it every year! All the strings can remain in first position, double stops may be divided, repeats can be optional, and it works equally well with full orchestra or just strings and piano. Highly recommended! (JWP)

Vaughan Williams' chorale prelude on the 19th-century Welsh hymntune "Rhosymedre" is well known in instrumental settings for organ, orchestra, concert band, and various chamber ensembles and solo instruments. The composer contrasts the steady simplicity of the hymntune, stated in longer values, with an elegant filigree of countermelodies and contrapuntal voices. This orchestration by Arnold Foster is scored for full orchestra but also may be effectively performed by strings alone. (Pub)

Throughout the ages, man has created ceremonies, both liturgical and secular, to celebrate human existence. Driving rhythms are underscored by the melodic and harmonic content and combined with unique tone colors. This work investigates an eclectic blend of musical styles drawn from many cultural roots. Rich and vibrant, it's a powerful new work for orchestra. (Pub)

Explosive, powerful and dramatic, here's a work that your orchestra can really sink their teeth into! Entrancing instrumental colors burst into splashes of energy from the brass and rhythm sections, biting dissonances abound, and a constant surge of excitement flows through the piece. There's even a measure where the brass are invited to "pick-a-note" as they crescendo into a resolving chord... a really neat effect! If you want to light a fire under your players (and your audience, too), then Rites Of Tamburo is a top choice. (JWP)

The European spirit of Hungary and Romania fills this original work with dancing rhythms and intriguing melodies. The strings are given a chance to shine with some warm and expressive melodic writing, and the full ensemble brings the piece to a close with a return of the spirited opening. A thoroughly enjoyable work that doesn't present any real technical difficulties. (JWP)

The essence and resonance of this timeless overture is perfectly preserved in Leidig's arrangement. Technical range is perfect for high school string or full orchestras. String parts are carefully edited with bowings and alternate fingerings for more advanced players. Opportunities for learning the subtleties of off-the-string classical style are also presented. (Pub)

Vernon Leidig has done a superb job with this timeless overture, bringing it within technical range of school orchestras while preserving the essence of the original. The string parts have been carefully edited to allow both advanced and intermediate players to perform them. This is an outstanding arrangement for your high school string or full orchestra! (JWP)

A very playable arrangement of this Russian folk dance. Starting at a medium tempo, the excitement is heightened by four further tempo changes, the final one accelerating to a feverish presto. Fun to play and listen to! (JWP)

Rimsky-Korsakov's famous symphonic suite "Scheherazade" has been a staple of the symphonic literature since it was first written in 1888. Now your younger students can enjoy this Russian master's colorful orchestrations and imaginative themes in this "true-to-the-original" arrangement. Included are the Sultan's theme, Scheherazade's theme (for solo violin), "The Story of the Kalendar Prince" theme, and "The Young Prince and the Young Princess" themes. With plenty for every section to do, this arrangement is perfect for any concert or as a festival/contest selection. (Pub)

Chaminade wrote many wonderful works, but few have been fully orchestrated. This whimsical scherzo, reminiscent of a danse macabre, brings out the depth and harmonic richness of the original keyboard work with skillful weaving of contrasting textures and graceful melodic lines throughout the orchestra. Inspired by the devastating hurricane season during the summer of 2004, the subtitle of this work is "Ivan." The Second Storm begins with a calm melodic introduction "Before the Storm" and, as the fury of Mother Nature is unleashed, the work develops using strong unison impacts with driving rhythmic figures to capture the intensity of the event in sound. Your intermediate orchestra will sound bold. A big sound is guaranteed. (Pub)

With gentle grace, your orchestra, setting into motion the performance of one of Gustav Holst's most famous themes, quietly introduces this charismatic melody. The legato styling offers a magnificent teaching opportunity to reinforce musicianship while also serving as a performance vehicle. Great care has been taken to maintain the integrity of the original composition. (Pub)

Holst used this compelling folk melody in his famous wind band suite and also in his "St. Paul's Suite," and one listen will tell you why. At once both sorrowful and uplifting, the melody is so beautiful that it will bring tears to your eyes. Roy Phillippe's striking setting adheres to Holst's original, and presents a beautiful vehicle for displaying the finer points of playing. (JWP)

The only selection to be featured in the original "Fantasia" film and sixty years later in "Fantasia 2000!" is arranged here in a version your students can play. Playable by string orchestra or full orchestra, this arrangement avoids much of the introductory material to get right into the most familiar parts. An orchestra classic. (Pub)

Darth Vader lives! The amazing world of space adventure known as Star Wars returns again, and it is bigger than ever. With enhanced visuals and a new series of films to follow, it's the most important entertainment story of the decade. The marvelously exciting music of John Williams has created a magical aura, and Charles Sayre has masterfully created a fresh new version of this gigantic anthem. Need more be said? (Pub)

Let your orchestra do battle with the Dark Side in this very playable arrangement of the heroic Main Theme from "Star Wars!" Thanks to the reappearance of the "Star Wars Trilogy" in the theaters, students everywhere are clamoring to play this thrilling music. Audiences, too, will want to hear it, and as one of John Williams' most masterful compositions, it really deserves to be played! "May the Force be with you!" (JWP)

A striking new arrangement! Perfect for developing a light classical style and to study Theme and Variations form. Learning opportunities include "terraced-style" dynamics, staccato and tenuto playing, and major/minor tonalities. Everyone plays the melody at sometime during this arrangement. All string parts stay in first position, and wind parts adhere to very practical ranges. (Pub)

This is ideal for developing a light classical style, studying Theme and Variations form, and, of course, waking up any dozing members of the aristocracy! Learning opportunities include terraced-style dynamics, staccato and tenuto playing, and major/minor tonalities. Everyone plays the melody at some time during this arrangement. All string parts stay in first position, and wind parts adhere to very practical ranges. An excellent choice! (JWP)

This outstanding arrangement is accessible by even very young full orchestras. Every section gets a chance with the melody, and each variation is represented with a different texture and accompaniment, invigorating the lively dance tune as the piece catapults toward the surprise presto ending! Thoughtful use of percussion adds to the colorful scoring. Students will love this high-energy delight from the Renaissance era. (Pub)

The "Linz Symphony "is included among Mozart's best. The first movement is cheerful and buoyant in mood, yet retains an air of dignity and poise reflective of a true master of the genre. Richard Meyer's full orchestra arrangement of this classic is a terrific addition for any concert or contest. (Pub)

Haunting, ominous, and playful, this Scherzo movement from Beethoven's famous Symphony No. 5, arranged by Richard Meyer, has it all. Your students will love the stirring harmonies and driving rhythms while the colorful orchestration---faithful to the original---keeps brass, woodwinds, strings, and percussion involved throughout. A great chance for your orchestra to experience an important and glorious moment in symphonic history! (Pub)

One of the most notable movements from Dmitri Shostakovich is transformed into this superb new edition that is well within the reach of most orchestras. Stephen Bulla's arrangement is appropriately truncated, and carefully altered with key, range and technique, and orchestration considerations for today's school, festival and regional orchestras. This beautiful arrangement of the second movement from Beethoven's Symphony No. 7 should be in every orchestra's repertoire. With its serene and solemn dignity, it has been likened to a procession through the catacombs. Minor changes in instrumentation have been made here to make this treatment of Beethoven's masterpiece very accessible to the more advanced student orchestra, while still sounding very close to the original. (Pub)

One of the most beautiful and haunting slow movements ever written is now available for your orchestra. Arranger Vernon Leidig has taken great care to make this as close to the original as possible while remaining accessible to your students. All the solemn dignity of the original can still be heard as Beethoven takes a simple motive and builds it into a powerful musical statement. This should be in every orchestra's repertoire. Excellent! (JWP)

The luster and appeal of baroque music still goes on unabated. In Telemann Sinfonia (a paraphrase of Telemann's Trio in A Minor), Robert Bennett Brown has tastefully made an arrangement for the contemporary orchestra, which faithfully retains the true style and character of the music of this period. This junior level full orchestra piece explores three tableaux of human/equestrian collaboration: one dignified and martial, a second festive and light-hearted, and a third tranquil and thoughtful. Although it can be performed with strings only, the characteristic sounds of strings, winds and percussion woven together provides a unique experience for your advancing musicians. (Pub)

Girolamo Frescobaldi composed this now famous melody in the 1600s . For 300 years, it has appeared on literally thousands of programs for solo instruments as well as almost every conceivable ensemble. Hans Kinder has transcribed the work for full orchestra and in this setting presents a bold rendition that uses broad harmonic support for the melody. (Pub)

Up was completed in the spring of 2013. I had this piece on my 'back burner' so to speak for months prior and hadn't really had the time to sit down and develop it the way I'd like. But the framework was there. And when a colleague contacted me about a new piece, I knew I had to finish it. So after a few days of hard work I had completed the piece. This composition was initially inspired by a picture of hot air balloons I saw; I've always enjoyed hot air balloons, the way they float in the sky and the bright colors of the balloons.

The work is a study of sorts in contrast and harmony, although those two elements are not the only focus. Up spins together beautiful melodies, fresh harmonies, a relentless ostinato, whimsical solos, and moments of pure exaltation and affirmation. On a personal level, Up was written at a time when my career was beginning to flourish before my eyes and it seemed like everything was going my way for a change. My music was being performed regularly and I had gained the respect of a lot of musicians and composers that I had idolized only a few years ago as a teenager (and whom I still idolize!). To me gaining this respect and being seen as a serious artist and musical colleague was one of the high points of my life. The thrill of seeing your dreams come true and your hard work and dedication to craft paying off is a personal joy unsurpassed by any other in my life. And this piece, while inspired by hot air balloons, also perfectly depicts the exhilaration I felt those early months of 2013 – On top of the world! (Pub)

"Variations on a Shaker Melody" is an excerpt from "Appalachian Spring" which was composed in 1943-44 as a ballet for Miss Martha Graham on a commission from the Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge Foundation. The ballet was first performed by Miss Graham and her company at the Coolidge Festival in the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C., on October 30, 1944.

The original scoring called for a chamber ensemble of thirteen instruments. The present arrangement for symphony orchestra was made by the composer especially for performance by school and community orchestras. (Pub)

This tuneful and graceful excerpt from "Appalachian Spring" is one of Copland's most "American" works, famous for his use of the Shaker tune, Gift to be Simple. Written primarily with dancer Martha Graham in mind, Copland himself describes the music as being much like Graham herself, "...she's unquestionably very American: there's something prim and restrained, simple yet strong, about her which one tends to think of as American." The charm of this work lies in the excellent construction and contrast in style and color. Students have always enjoyed playing it, because everyone gets the melody at some point and there are joyous solo passages for the upper woodwinds. Originally published in 1958, and still on state lists, this new edition is true to the original with only a few articulations and bowings added. (Pub)

Three waltzes make up the body of this Impressionistic work for full orchestra. The first waltz is in a quick three-to-a-measure; the second is a slow $\frac{3}{4}$; the finale is a very exuberant waltz in one. While requiring solid technique in all parts, the piece is accessible to experienced players. The soaring melodic lines, tall chord harmonies, and orchestral color produce a stunning and memorable musical impact. (Pub)
